

KZR's founding partners and their successors (former KZR associates) continue building relationships and collaborations with other individuals and organizations who share in our passion for developing the human factor with equal intensity in the for-profit and non-profit arena.

Organizations on this page are an important part of KZR's expanding network that is transforming the management and leadership landscape in Pakistan and abroad.

Links to websites of these organizations are provided here.